Mini Lonnie, “Squirrel!” and a Skull

A few things have happened since our last chat. Lonnie Olson sent his Mini Me to court to respond to the petition for a new trial to simply say ‘He’s guilty and should never be released from prison’, as a response to the petition that clearly lays out that Werner Kunkle was railroaded, exculpatory witnesses were hidden from the defense, and their ‘expert’ bug man was not certified, nor qualified, but a hobbyist whose testimony was a joke and Lonnie Olson knew it all along. Which also means Lonnie KNEW he was clearing the path for the real killers, and he didn’t care. Yes, they killed before and would kill again, but Lonnie wanted to convict a Ham Sammich.

Pretty sure he knew a whole lot more, because witnesses probably came forward and told them the truth, just like witnesses knew who killed Eddie Peltier, but that would interfere with Lonnie’s big plans, so he framed and railroaded Werner Kunkel.

Of course he’s a big time Federal Judge now (OoooOOoooo!) and sent his Mini Me in not to respond to the facts stated in the petition (over 200 points made by the defense attorneys), but to blithely state that the facts don’t matter, he’s guilty. I hear the Mini Me actually looked like a little Lonnie.

So, the Trial Date is set. Will Mini Me show up? Will he risk his professional reputation on this landslide, or should I say “mudslide” of facts that show utter disregard for the law, the rights of defendants, and the facts that pointed clearly away from his desired target, in the previous trial? Will he gleefully and blithely state with confidence that no facts matter because they got a conviction on lies? Who(m) of the Larry, Mo, Curly Joe and now Mini-Me, will take the hit on this one? Is Tiffany Sorgan still the expendable one? We’ll see.

Now For the Squirrel ...

Remember the Blackhawk Helicopter raid on an apartment building in Chicago? Middle of the night. Really dramatic. Our heroes repelled down long lines to break into the building (would’ve been cheaper to take the stairs), kick in every door, yank people out of their beds, some of them naked, zip tie them and sit them out in the street, for hours, while they trashed every apartment, breaking things like TVs, appliances, ... oh, and little kids were crying because they were, ready for it? Zip tied to each other, barely clothed, and forced to sit on the sidewalk for hours while this whole adventure was taking place. The cover story was that there were cartel and gangs living in that building and this was f47's way of bringing down crime... in a city that has one of the lowest crime rates in the USA. This terrorism went on for hours and the people returned to broken doors, sacked apartments and stolen valuables.

They weren't gang members or cartel members. In fact they weren't criminals at all. They were gardeners, nannies, cooks, car wash attendants and they had their immigration paperwork in order (that never seems to matter to the Thug Squads, but it's a fact).

Well, out of all of that excitement they played out for the macho man PR streams, resulted in NO arrests. No Trials. No convictions. Oh yeah, most of the people were also US Citizens.

They just wanted to prove they could do anything to anyone, anywhere if they wanted to. They proved that.

That was the Squirrel. And that all that to turn eyes away from what was really taking place earlier, May, that was just starting to raise a stink as media was getting wind of yet another outrage. Remember the "buy US Citizenship for $X___ Million dollars" You get a gold pass or platinum pass that grants you instant and full citizenship in the USA, courtesy of Trump? Remember that? Yes? No?

Well, the first dozen people to take advantage of that were the family, including the son of the man who ran the Sinaloa Cartel in Mexico. Yup, they are now 100% citizens! They give him money (you don't think that money is going anywhere but his pocket, do you?) and they can have all the protections of full citizenship in the good ol' US of A.

Boy, bet you'd be mad if you were being informed about that, wouldn't you. It made the news but was quickly flushed in favor of his sending troops into cities in Blue States, especially cities who had Black Mayors, and low crime. Cities with much higher crime rates, but they are in Red States and he needs them, well he needs their governors and AG's and Supreme Courts on his side, especially now that he's made living unaffordable, government non-functional and is cutting off food benefits to their children, their poor, their elderly and to the military servicemen and women.

So, those crime ridden jurisdictions get no thug armies marching through their streets, abducting people, beating, torturing people, and no (theme music) Blackhawk Helicopter raids on apartment buildings full of working people, and no zip tying of naked people and small children while their apartments are trashed by the jackbooted thugs doing his bidding.

THE SINALOA CARTEL FFS!

He commits horrors on a grand scale and every republican in Congress looks the other way because they owe their allegiance to their party, not to the country and not to the people who elected them and are now paying the price for voting for Hate.

Now that the Epstein emails and files are being pursued by congress (because they were forced to because, the shutdown they were using to strangle the ACA out of existence, and to end the SNAP benefits that feed the poor, disabled and our military) ended when the Senate moved to end it. I guess Democrats aren't willing to cut the baby in half, but Republicans have no problem starving it and taking away health care. Hospitals are closing left and right, so that's a win for Republicans.

So, now the Epstein Files are being dumped in the media and tons of information and names are coming out.

Not to worry fans, f47's brilliant Attorney General, whose job it is to protect him at all costs, from his own criminal acts, presently ongoing or past, announced to the nation last month that she was taking One Thousand FBI Agents and tasking them with going through the files and records and evidence and removing any mention of Donald Trump from all of it. They would be working 24/7... that's right, around the clock, for weeks, to erase his name.

What does that tell you?

It should tell you that he's so involved in those crimes that it takes 1,000 FBI agents working 24/7, weeks and weeks to cover his shit. Also, that 1000 FBI agents were not doing the work of solving crimes, but in covering up his crimes. That's a lot of criming!

Speaking of the FBI...

I hear that Isaac Hunt, son of Restin Hunt, brother to Rolling on the Supermarket Floor and being Arrested D'Angelo Hunt, has been found... sort of. Just a skull. The rest of him is still missing. This was found in one of the burn pits on Hunt's property.

Blood is Thicker

Remember when Chairwoman ~~Rena Little-Lohmes~~ Lonna Jackson-Street stopped the searchers who were finding evidence in those same burn pits awhile back? I hear she's related to Restin and D'Angelo Hunt.

Apparently, at the time, she had the power and authority to stop the BIA and the Searchers, and refused permission or refused to ask the FBI or refused to invite the FBI to search for the two missing persons connected to D'Angelo and Restin Hunt: Jemini, the mother of D'Angelo's baby, and Isaac, his brother. They concocted some bs story about them leaving on their own at different times and no they weren't worried about them...

Just last week D'Angelo's grandmother came shrieking out of her apartment in Devil's Lake where her grandson, D'Angelo was ringing to get in, and one of the searchers was yelling from her car: "Where's Jemini! What did you do with her body!"... and the gramma (who is not very bright) come raging out in his defense: "She's 6ft under somewhere!"

Ok, even his grandmother knew he had murdered her. Good to know. Accessory after the fact? We'll see.

I couldn't figure out why the FBI hadn't investigated these two missing persons. Figured it was because Restin Hunt was, according to several people who wrote to me, protected by law enforcement because he, aside from being one of the biggest meth dealers in the region, was immune from law enforcement because he was a CI. A Confidential Informant.

That designation worked for James Yankton and his entire family for decades. He had Spencer Helleckson cleaning up all his messes and I guess when the FBI covers your crap for so long, it becomes a reflex, right?

Government needs hard crime to exist on the reservations because if not for that, the people would be able to make real progress and prosperity and that would cause problems for the resource extraction corporations who need dysfunctional government and oppression to be able to raid our nation's resources, located on Federal Lands (Indian Country) for pennies and leave the messes behind for taxpayers to clean up or not—just leave it to cause generational harm to the people no one really cares about, right?

So, imagine my total shock when yesterday I heard that the skull of one of Hunt's victim's had been found! Who found it?

The FBI!! Yes, the same FBI that had deferred to the chairwoman's authority when it never existed (Federal lands are all subject to FBI authority, and all felony investigations fall to the authority of the FBI in Indian Country) So for them to pretend they couldn't do anything and shrug it off, was confirmation of my cynicism from decades of watching deliberately fail to follow through on the Rez.

For some reason, they stepped up. Maybe people were phoning and demanding they do their job (if they weren't too busy doing 24/7 redactions and destruction of any evidence of f47's name in the Epstein Files)... I guess this group of FBI is different from every one in that region that had preceded them. Hallelujah.

Wrap Up

Werner will have his trial. Witnesses will be called. Evidence of Lonnie Olson's misconduct will be made public.

The mobster in the White House (what's left of it), is desperate and dangerous and I expect even more horrific crimes to be committed upon the citizens of the USA. The Squirrels he releases are the ugliest, most violent, but it won't stop that train that's rolling down that track.

Know that the squirrels are there to distract from bigger crimes. Like inviting the Sinaloa Cartel members to buy US Citizenship. He's not about stopping any crimes. He's all about running them for personal profit for him and his family. He has people running the FBI (Kash Patel) and drunks running Department of Defense, who have no security clearances and who were given a free pass to access all our nation's secrets—without taking a lie detector test and without qualifying for top security. Does that sound like a man protecting the nation? Not to me.

The FBI has found the skull of one of the victims of Restin and D'Angelo Hunt and TV News has asked the Hunts what they know about that and they completely not interested, totally shocked... but if it were your son or brother who was missing and then his skull was found in your burn pit, wouldn't you react like it was tragic? Or at least important? (Somebody drag that screeching granny out and ask what she knows. Obviously, she knew more than the FBI, right?)

There's more evidence to be found. They just have to look for it. They just have to do what they have the authority to do. And Rena Little Lohnes has some 'splaining to do.

One thing I want you to remember: The Good People of Spirit Lake Nation deserve better. They live under this chronic oppression and disinterest by the very agencies that are capable of finding the missing, investigating crimes, stopping the human trafficking, stopping the child trafficking and stopping the drug running.

They just don't want to. Maybe they prefer covering up the footprints, fingerprints of criminals in the White House. Or maybe what they have seen or heard others have seen, has disgusted them enough that they are doing what they should've been doing all along, and it will feel good to them when they do the right thing and work for the Good of the People.

There's a lot to undo out in Indian Country. The Good People all across Indian Country, have been suffering and struggling under a system bent on destroying them. I hope this is a signal of a turnaround for at least one agency. But I remain skeptical.

But I am watching.
So are all of you.

You know where to find me.
