

Sideshow Sally

Wands June 18, 2010

Wandering Wanda still unable to find the contact button on the website, still harping in her FB site, that I am somehow neglecting her. I believe her highness wishes to “summon” me to her email. It makes no sense.

If she has any information on the murder of Eddie Peltier (she references it as if she was involved, or was somehow hurt by it or has some ‘Truth’ about it.) I’m still waiting. Those email links are still working. If she has something to offer... what is holding her back?

A better question, after seeing these chemically induced rants is: “What is holding her UP?”

Wanda White-Trottier RESTLESS SPIRIT EDDIE PELTIER- whereswans@yahoo.com..I agree lets hear the truth....There are no filters here. And, I will not rip you apart for the truth..I Am WANDA WHITE TROTTIER and you already seen me ripped apart by that site....They want truth??? I am still here...

2 hours ago

I did not ‘rip’ her ‘apart’ on the site. I posted her drunken, pill induced rants where she was saying how much she wanted to ‘Fuck’ me ‘hard’. She ripped herself. I merely answered her shrieking. But, she has posted her email address so, if you want to contact her, feel free.

Wanda White-Trottier

TRUTH: Tell Patty!!!!

2 hours ago

Wanda White-Trottier No I was 17 IN 1984..TWENTY YEARS OF BEING BULLIED,,I may have been young back then..But I hit 40 years old,,And, you think you know the truth..Lets hear the tuuth...NOTHING scares me about an hour ago

Somehow, she ‘hit 40’ and she wants to hear the ‘tuuth’ except for her own words played back to her at full volume. She keeps going on and on about ‘not being scared’. I don’t get it. I’m not trying to scare her. I want her replaced by someone that is not mentally ill, does not use her position to bully others, or otherwise act out her petty grievances against people who are NOT her friends. Clearly, she still can’t spell.

Also note: The Time Stamp goes off here. I suspect multiple deletes of postings from Fearless Wans is why that time stamp is not consistent.

Wanda White-Trottier Comeon Geneva..I remeber your momma in that white buckskin dress.I have nothing to hide. I think I would make Florence and Mae proud...From listening to their conversations..The greatest pride is>HONOR!!! about an hour ago

I have no idea what that last posting was about. It seems like the normal FB posting. I keep it in here to show 'continuity'. "WHY" will become obvious later on in this document

I love that she talks about "Honor" and "Pride". She has neither. If she did, she would admit she was wrong about who I am and just admit she's a pill head.

Wanda White-Trottier You know what??You thought you would scare me in to closing my account..I am Wanda White-Trottier..I have no secrets. See you tommorow...
2 hours ago

Apparently, she has a lot to be afraid of. She had closed her account, despite the bravado in this posting. She then re opened it and several times she posted a phone number to "Patty". Nothing like having your phone number posted by someone that wants to bully you. I will delete the phone numbers & replace with * from here on in.

She is correct, however: She has no secrets. We all know about that whole Brokeback Mountain thing. ... And that might explain the addiction to pills and booze.

Posting that phone number again. What kind of "professional" posts someone else's phone number on a wall, hoping that person will be harassed? Her idea of being mature is to write on the bathroom walls, I am sure. Is this really the person you want running the jobs out in that community? She's childish, abusive, and harasses people she either doesn't like or whom she has the hots for but can't get their attention. You figure it out. I'm tired of guessing with her.

Wanda White-Trottier But the truth is..701-*..I am on your side..Your story is my story...Don't let anyone scare you.
2 hours ago

I don't get this at all. She's 'on my side'? We have the same story? And don't worry, Wanda, I'm not letting anyone scare me. I'm not deleting my FB profile and then putting it up again, then deleting and then putting it up again. I'm still on the blog. Not scared. Laughing a little, but not scared.

Holly Smeltzer AMEN Wanda I am proud to have you as a Good friend and love that knowing your on my side as i am on yours:)

Oh wait! It was Holly Smeltzer you were talking to? My bad. Carry on. You both have the same story and friends need friends.But, then, why did you post that phone number again?

Notice that she had only opened her Facebook 4 or 5 hours (see next page) previous to the comment at the top of the page. So, when she says she was 'thinking about' closing her account, but "nothing scares" her, so why did she panic and close her profile after that previous posting?

Oh well, her friends will never ask the obvious questions. The rest of us will be very confused if we try to actually follow her meanderings and her yowlings.

I suspect she slammed shut her FB profile because she was an embarrassment to the Tribal Council, especially Darwin Brown, who is now getting more scrutiny, and she totally humiliated herself with the all caps, horribly sloppy spelling and mindless yowling about a sexual preference for me---and Yoda. *Shudder.

Notice how this public timeline of hers is all lower case? Not that much yelling. Only a few attempts to bully Patty, whom I suspect she really has a crush on, and in her mindless, drug induced confusion, she thinks that I am Patty.

I found out why. Patty is a person with an education. I guess educated people are the enemy of the status quo out there. I guess 'All us educated people look alike,' to the ignorant.

And that is how the threat scenario formed in the chemical soup of her brain.

She thinks that this is how she 'redeems' herself. She continues to go off into a world that makes perfect sense to her... and her 'friends' on Facebook.

Wanda White-Trottier HERES MY CHANCE!!! You love me why?

4 hours ago

Either she got no responses to this or she deleted them all. Yet, she wants us to believe that she is all cool and sweet on Facebook. That other Wanda the Wanton Wild Woman that made such a splash "Shadow Boxing" is not this Wanda. Noooo. This one is 'sane' *smrfl

Wanda White-Trottier Oh my gosh! I so missed you guys. Tell me everything!!!

4 hours ago

Wow, needy much? She closed her account for 3 days and it is as if the world came to an end! LOL

Wanda White-Trottier You know what? I thought I would close my account..But, Go ahead see what I have to say.

4 hours ago

I do. But you keep re-editing it, deleting it. It only confirms that you are unstable, immature, and can't spell, and have no concern for how you conduct yourself, both in your private life and your professional life, and how the both affects the tribe, and reflects upon them.

You take your petty drunken brawls to the public. There is nothing to be gained by this except that you will continue to humiliate yourself and draw attention to the biggest lies in the Tribal Council.

Don't stop. We are on the same side. You are proving what I say. Good job Wands.

Wanda White-Trottier Sorry! Nothing scares me..

3 hours ago

Yes, a lot of things scare you. That's why you get juiced up. That's why you can't tell the truth. Everything scares you. You are not fit for the job. You only got it because of Brokeback Mountain. You don't show up on time. You leave early. You can't be trusted with the jobs. All of that scares you. You don't know which of your friends ratted out your facebook page. You don't know which ones are sending me your private messages, where you come completely unglued.

Everything you do is surrounded by fear. Isn't it time for your 'medication'?

Wanda White-Trottier Politics..You run my name through the MUD. Im still here. You only make me smile!!!

3 hours ago

You ran yourself through the mud. Take responsibility. Make sure you don't forget your teeth when you smile.

Anyone that read your previous rants knows that you are not smiling... you are pissing your pants. Your friends know it. I know it. People that have to deal with you know it. You are full of false courage. You ask for it and then don't want it when you get it.

You are a confused woman of questionable ethics and low values.

Wanda White-Trottier And STRONGER!!!

3 hours ago

The only thing 'Stronger' about you is the smell. Bathing is not optional. People who have to deal with you, should not have to put up with that.

And be careful. When you start using ALL CAPS and "!!!" ---everyone is laughing.

As you can see, this 'brave' Nothing-scares-me woman, deleted all her postings back to her birthday in May. Perhaps she has enough sense to know how embarrassing it is to be her, to know her, to read her endless screams in the night.

Wanda White-Trottier Thank you for all the birthday wishes facebookers. I am truly blessed to have you in my life. God has been good to me. To another awesome 44 years to come.

And then, she edited it yet again...

A Little Bird Told Me...

This is her posting Just 13 hours later... Look at all the missing statements. She took down her rants against Patty, took down the phone numbers... she thinks she has covered her tracks, fooled everyone.

She took it down, left only this innocuous rambling... because she is scared. Perhaps she has something to be afraid of. Perhaps she can now worry about those private messages.... She took down the email address, so I guess she has given up trying to 'summon' me.

She is now a sideshow. And until you get her removed from that job and put in someone who is qualified, able and has integrity... nothing gets better out there.
