Kevin Keeps Screaming My Name

Again, the Tribal Council, collectively, with their thumbs up their butts, has allowed a rogue former employee to put it in the precarious position of yet another law suit for Slander, Libel and Harassment. Who pays? You do. Trust me on this. He's doing damage at an escalating rate, along with his sister, Clarice, who sits on council and becomes a part and party to, his crimes.

The illegal exclusion of Annie Howard, based on outright Slander, is also a form of harassment and the Tribal council will have to spend tons of money it says it doesn't have when YOU need it for medical, fuel, schools, home repairs, etc... on attorney fees, court costs and of course, huge settlements to their victims.

What you need to know, before I go a step further is this: Kevin officially and formally resigned his position with Social Services, effective as of September 30, 2011. Kristi was fired by the Tribal Council. Even so, Kristi showed up and rummaged through the office and files, threw tantrums, cried, screamed... and then, three or four days of this, Tribal Council, with the collective IQ of a bag of dirt, realized they might have to get rid of her. Not sure what kind of oatmeal they eat, but it really slows them down.

"Duh, I dunno. Me neither. You? No, not me. You? Nuh uh... ummmm...."

This is how your impotent Council deals with urgent issues. Kristi should never have been let back in the building.

Meanwhile, Clarice, in order to either pave the way for her brother to return to the job he had resigned from, or to distract from the crimes of her brother, or to intimidate anyone who could or would or might even think of talking to the authorities about the crimes of her brother, or her family for that matter... energized the Tribal Council to act urgently to exclude Annie Howard from the rez... based on known and provable lies and perjury by Terry Morgan. They moved so fast and furious, they didn't even follow their own protocols, rules, or bylaws.

In other words, they acted like thugs and bullies to harass and intimidate and innocent person, for no good reason, no true reason whatsoever. Who are these people?

These are not the casual and frequent abuses that are rampant out on the rez where people are floated off with only a few minutes notice and their property confiscated by those in power who then divvy up the looted properties amongst themselves. Those people have little education and/or little or no means to access legal recourse. They get away with it. Have gotten away with it, for years.

But now, they pick on someone who is educated, works for the Federal government, and is fully capable of suing both the Tribe and the individuals on council as well as the Directors of departments and the Tribal Police!

Heads up Oyate! Your liability is enormous on this. Seriously. Huge.

All throughout this, apparently, Kevin has been screaming my name. Not sure why. (I wonder if he wakes up in a cold sweat because he hears me laughing?)

More Damage

But wait... there's more!

After Kevin's recent tour of failure where he quit the job, left the State, tried to reunite with an ex-wife who spits every time his name is mentioned, and he had to drink his way back to North Dakota, ... he, like Kristi, returned to the job as if it was still his.

During this time, he decided to create even more and more expensive legal liability for his department, the Tribal Council and of course, for the Tribe (that's y'all) who will have to pay for his criminal behaviors.

He issued a threatening letter to ALL the Foster Parents, and signed it as the Director, which is in fact, a lie. Therefore, 'Fraud'.

In that letter, he falsely claimed that Betty Jo Krenz is going around claiming to work for CPS or Social Services (or both) -- which she is NOT-- and that if ANY of these Foster Parents has any contact with her, speaks with her, they will have their Foster Children taken away from them -- immediately.

Think about that, for a second.

No, take a whole minute. I'll wait.

(tick, tock, tick tock...)

The Tribal Council allows first, Kristi to return to an office and tamper with files, after she had been formally dismissed, terminated, fired... for 3 days. Liability goes through the roof on that one.

Then, they allow Kevin to return, issue letters fraudulently, that threaten the health, safety, well-being of the families and children in Foster Care... based on pure slander and libel.

Now, again, he is -- with the blessing of the lamest Tribal Council -- (by virtue of their inaction), begging for lawsuits that will come, that will cost the tribe Millions.

Your Tribal Council is NOT protecting the Tribe.

They are not following their own rules and protocols.

They are allowing criminal acts and behaviors to occur under their own roof, and simply shrugging their shoulders as if they either don't know or don't care...

Foster Parents are outraged and lined up waiting for the Tribal Council to come back from their paid-for-by-the-tribe lunches, so they can demand action on these threatening and harassing letters they received. I'm thinking: "Class Action"?

Your Tribe has a DA on staff. Is he never consulted? Or is he as dumb and corrupt as the rest of the Tribal Council? Can he be sued as well? I think so. I really do.

Meanwhile, Head Start

Marty Alex continues to try and get his wife, Georgia, back into Head Start. She was removed after it was revealed that she was using the Credit Card for the program as if it was her personal piggy bank. Spas and shopping... okay, she got caught and agreed to pay it back... but it was still a crime.

She was outraged when she got canned. She thinks abuse of Federal Funds is no big deal. Marty is using his position and all his connections to try and get her back in.

This past week, he went with Joel Redfox, to Washington DC -- not just to get more funding, but to petition to get Becky removed as Director of the Program. Becky was appointed. Becky has been slugged in the face by one of the slobs who thinks that Head Start should be for political paybacks, not for the Children.

Joel, I like you. I cannot possibly see how you could be so stupid as to go to DC with the husband of the woman who robbed the program you are trying to get funding for. It makes no sense. It makes you look stupid, makes the tribe look stupid and corrupt, and it makes Indians looking to use these programs, look pathetic.

Becky, so far, is the ONLY one in that program at the Admin level that has actually fought for the children. The rest of y'all are just itching to get your fat greedy fingers on those credit cards. Shame. Shame. Shame!

Where's Kevin?

Meanwhile, as Kevin has been allowed to operate in the same way as a criminal thug in charge of a crime syndicate, and put the Tribe at high risk of lawsuits and of losing funding -- or more-- where is Kevin today as those outraged Foster Parents are lined up, waving those fraudulent letters?

Well, he claims to be in Bismarck... saying he is "Taking Betty Jo down."

He forgets: Bismarck is not his crime family. They demand proof. They might even want to look at his credentials. They might find out how many box tops he sent in to get his degree from a Diploma Mill. Who knows?

I will keep you posted.

What's that noise? Screaming? Oh, it's just Kevin screaming my name in the halls... Why? I wonder. I haven't done anything. I am just the messenger.

Sweet Dreams, Kevin.

You know where to find me.
