Good Grief!

Chris Cavanaugh was finally laid to rest last week. The family feud over this carried on over into the process of funeral arrangements. I am told that no one from the mother's side attended. That one side of the family is blaming the other side for his death, and fingers are pointing.

Since there has been no investigation, we are left with the story as told: He got into a fight with his cousin(s). Left and then went back to the house and all was good. They went out for more beer (dry reservation?) and he chose to stay behind (what? No Road Trip?). When they got back he was dead in the road.

Apparently he decided to walk home, and was either struck by a car driven by a woman who later, as she saw police at the spot where she 'thought she had run over a bag of trash', and told them it was her when she realized it was a person.

Or, he decided to walk home, but being drunk and having been beaten up earlier, he collapsed on the road, and in the snow and dark, looked like a bag of trash and was struck...

Or... as the family is fighting about it saying: He was beaten to death, or near death at the house and was then dumped on the road 'like a bag of garbage' and was then struck by the woman's car...

Some are saying that the woman that hit him had been drinking... I have only heard that from ONE person. It would not matter unless she was drunk, anyway, and since she came forward immediately, they could have, if they suspected she was impaired, run tests-- but they obviously did not think she was, so maybe we can, at least for now, put that one to rest...

Because there is NO investigation, and because the Tribal Police are all hacks, and because so many of them abuse their own families, beat their wives, do drugs, have children with underage girls, the cops are a joke to begin with. People have no confidence in what happened.

It doesn't matter what I write here, or what you think happened-- no investigation means it will never be for sure, one way or the other, what happened unless someone gets a conscience and speaks up.

We've seen what happened when Eddie was murdered... so there is not likely to be anyone speaking up. That takes courage. That takes integrity. That takes decency. No one involved in the drinking and his death, will come forward, except for the woman who was unfortunate enough to be the one to hit him.

Alcohol is a problem out there. Frankly, I think it is a problem everywhere. But look at the ages on the grave markers: Indians are dying way too young! You are burying your children, two or three a month.

That is a lot of grief. That is a lot of pain. That is a lot of unhappiness and misery. That is why there are so many out there self-medicating with drugs and alcohol. And the cycle continues.

We have to find a way to break the cycle. We have to stop pointing fingers and start looking at how it began, how it evolved, and how it ended-- not just at how it ended.

There was a whole process of failure along the way. People are trying but get no support. People are dying and the families fight over whose fault it is. It's everyone's doing. This is on all of us.

We have to find a way to come together, not be afraid to tell the truth, and to stand by those who do find the courage to tell the truth. Standing by those who tell the truth is the only way the best part of us can grow and survive and be a living example to the rest of us, especially to the children, how to overcome mistakes, tragedies, and grief.

The community is traumatized over and over again. I don't know of any other community that could even survive so much grief and tragedy.

We need to do more than just live to see another funeral of another child. We need to break the cycle.

You know where to find me.

Family Feud

I hear that the woman that hit or ran over Chris Cavanaugh was drunk. I'm still giving her credit for turning herself in at the scene. People are saying they saw her in the liquor store. There were a lot of y'all in the bars and liquor stores that night, ironically because the Social Impact Checks had arrived.

Did they run any sobriety tests? Did they get a blood or urine sample? Nope. That would be too much like "PO-LEEES Work"

You do realize that Alcohol kills, right? Not always real fast, but it kills. First it sickens the spirit, and then it alienates your children, and then, as it is making you feel worse and worse about your life, it takes your children and puts them in the bottle with you.

The Funeral and Wake were a mess. The family is blaming one side for his death. Blaming everyone on one side of the family-- and that is a big family!

His mother did not attend the wake, but did attend the funeral. One of her grown daughters had apparently called in the Tribal Police, who told one side of the family they could not attend the funeral of their own family member.

Get this straight clowns: Police can only enforce laws and can only act if laws are broken. There is no law saying you can't attend a funeral. Clowns. Badgers. Idiots.

Yes, it got cleared up. Someone got the Tribal Council involved and the law against attending funerals could not be cited, so the cops slunk off to their hole.

So, instead of looking at this as a wake up call, and family coming together, we have accusations of murder. But again, a real investigation could clear this up one way or the other, but there will be none. They never investigated Mike Meade going missing, until he'd been in the water for about 2-3 weeks-- and they never investigated his death. Just cobble together some sort of scenario, ignore the glaring holes in it, and close the books.

So, accident? Murder? Does it make a difference? Not to Tribal Police.

Alcohol, poverty, addictions, abuses, rape, molest, corruption-- those are the causes of misery out there. I'm trying to put together some pages that speak about the problems with enrollment, and who gets enrolled, who doesn't ... who gets jobs, and who doesn't. Both sides of every issue complain.

What is needed is for all sides to come to a place and discuss the issues without threats, without violence. I bet, as smart as everyone is out there, a common ground for understanding the issues and seeing the bigger picture can be found.

We are all in this together. It's getting worse by people not discussing the issues and only getting mad, or feuding with people as resentments build.

There are only a few scraps of opportunity out there. The fat cats have taken all the good meat for themselves. They leave the rest of you to fight over what is left, and fighting/resenting each other is how things get nowhere.

When I post those pages, I will let you know. You will see both sides of the argument. You can have your 2¢ added to it if you speak with respect. I know that may be hard to do because you have not really had a place to discuss these issues before, and to hear the other side, and you have a lot of resentments built up.

But think of it as a family. A huge family that is dying off, being killed off, and is feuding with itself unable to come together or feel supported, even when there is a tragedy.

You know where to find me.

~Cat

PS, there will be more on this tragedy throughout the month. I feel it exemplifies in both literal and metaphorically, what is going on in so many aspects of life on the rez.

When The Truth Comes Out...

..they will gun down the Messenger.

It's a saying I hear a lot.

From the beginning of this project, I kept hearing, mostly from the Good People of Spirit Lake, that they wanted "the Truth to Come Out". People prayed for the Truth to come OUT. They still do.

But, when the Truth comes to their door, they barricade in horror, appalled that their name is being called. Everyone wants the finger to point to the OTHER guy. They want the guilty to be only the last person holding the hot potato.

Talking about that baby, "Love Bug" being killed the way he was... a series of bad judgments, reckless behavior all the way around, by everyone. No one wanted it to happen; not the Mother who loved him; not the driver that ran him over... but it was a tragedy that took years to form. These kinds of things don't 'just happen'. They are set up to happen. Warnings must be ignored, lessons not learned, and people have to close their eyes to dangers... and then... everyone wants the guilt, 100% of the guilt, to be owned only by the last person in the chain of events that led up to the worst possible scenario.

When Chris Cavanaugh was killed, and because there was no investigation, there are multiple stories flying around. Some may be true, some may only have pieces of the truth, but they are all out there. The Truth is kept locked away, in a box, in the ground, waiting to come out. But, with no real cops, no real investigation, the Truth will have to wait and tell itself in another tragedy, and another, and another... because until we all understand WHAT happened, HOW it happened, what needs to be done to stop it from happening again will not be learned.

The one most common behavior on the rez is competitive Victimhood. No matter what is going on, or whom it happened to or why, someone will find a way to make themselves the center of attention, as if they are the victim. They want attention.

I made the remark that even Mike Meade's death was not investigated. Mike died a horrible death! Whom do I hear from? A woman calling herself Joleen Littlewind, his auntie, blasting me for using his name. Yeah, that's the problem here, people 'using his name'. Not the drug dealers, the addictions, the corruption, the recklessness, the bullying... people using his name. I told her, that it was not about her. It was about Mike being killed-- but she needed attention.

I say it is someone calling themselves Joleen Littlewind, but it may have been anyone. So don't jump to conclusions. You can ask her if it was her or not. I have had a lot of cases where people are really cowardly and use someone else's name to attack me.

Wanting someone's death to not be discussed makes me wonder: Why? If it were me and that was my relative, and there had never been an investigation-- I would be thrilled if someone brought it up. I would want it talked about. I would not want it forgotten. Perhaps the writer just needed an attention fix. I dunno.

Had that email not come through, someone screaming for attention, I probably would not have wondered about her, her motives, attention seeking, and would not have mentioned his name again. But--- here it is! The Truth wants to come out. The Truth will come out.

When It Comes, It Will Be Big

That's the other thing I was told. That when the Truth comes out, it will come out everywhere. There will come a time when all the secrets are told. All the rocks are turned over. All the uglies squirming to get out of the light, slither away, hoping you don't catch a glimpse of them.

Often it has appeared to me, plain as can be, that the Rez is the microcosm of what is going on in the rest of the world. That what is happening in Indian Country, to people no one ever heard about, is happening everywhere, to people we have never heard about. The same mechanisms for oppressing Indians, is used everywhere, to oppress indigenous people, raid their resources, destroy the lands and obliterate, where they can, entire races, cultures, tribes, histories.

But the Truth wants to come out... and now we have "Wikileaks". People of good conscience cannot take it anymore. They found a way to reveal the Truth about governments, businesses, banks, all of it. (Wow! Be careful what you pray for!) The world is seeing it unfold, and the people are hungry for the Truth... but afraid to go near it.

They argue, WE argue over whether we are being made less safe because secrets, mostly embarrassing comments about national leaders, dictators, brats, are being revealed.

But so are details of deals made with the most evil of outcomes. Security forces responsible for murders of dissidents in 'democratic' nations. Resources being robbed from one nation to enrich corporations from another. Evil that was ignored, silently condoned, publicly scolded, and deals made.

The biggest secrets are coming through and people are arguing, trying to shut it down because we as a nation prefer to be told lies, false history, fairy tales and kept comfortable in our denials. We prefer to be surprised by suicide attacks, and play wailing victim to the mercies of media.... it's not just in Indian Country, it's EVERYWHERE. But we can see it better, if we look into Indian Country. Especially if we are not Indian. We can think it only happens there.

Wake up people... it happens everywhere. If it can happen in Indian Country, it can-- and does--happen everywhere.

Turdlings Seeking Power

Poopsie is looking to re establish himself as a bully. Not just on the rez, but off it as well. He is a member of Infragard, which is the biggest mistake ever made by the DOJ. Allowing people, in this case, murderers, to hold 'special police powers', which many abuse.

Case in Point:

Terry Dunn, who has in the past been shot at by both Poopsie and Weenie Boy, has never backed down from them. The bullet literally whistled past his ear! That would have been another 'unsolved' murder, which-- if anyone looked at Turdlings, they would have found "some Mexican to blame it on" like they did when Poopsie stabbed Sam Jackson to death. That's his phrase: "Find some Mexican to blame it on." Racism works.

Well, Terry Dunn has had a difficult enough life living on the rez as it is. Being falsely accused of Eddie Peltier's murder, serving time for it, has not made getting work any easier for him.

So, Terry is working on a construction site in Grand Forks. Alex Yankton, (a Turdling) also works on that job. Alex cannot look at Terry without feeling guilty and remembering the murder that his family committed. It makes him 'uneasy'.

So he whines to Poopsie. Poopsie shows up at the job site and tells the boss "Fire that man (Terry Dunn) because he's a known Meth head."

The Construction Boss told him to get lost. That he can't just show up on his work site and give him orders. He can hire and fire whomever he wants. And it's not Terry.

Ooopsie Poopsie! People are not impressed with you, your 'credentials' and your lies. Your Black Road Medicine Man dropped dead, remember? People can see you for what you are now. Your new Altar-for-Hire guy? Richard Street? Not even an Indian. That altar he bought from Crow Dog has bit him and it will bite you too.

I guess Poopsie didn't think anyone else read the blog or knew the history of Spirit Lake/Ft. Totten and the people in it. Wrong-o! They do read it. And they do know. The Truth is coming out, and it is believed. And the people are standing with it. And there is nothing you can do to change that.

So, Poopsie had to slink off of the site, muttering threats under his breath, and speed out of there.

Alex is being looked at very differently now. He could have just kept a low profile, but no-- he had to be the bully. Try to make Terry suffer even more for the murder(s) the Turdclan committed. Terry's co workers wanted to know if he was that guy (or one of those guys) written about on 'that website'. Yes, he is. I guess they read the blog. LOL!

I wonder: Did the construction boss notice that smell? Was Poopsie's man diaper full? It sure did not turn out the way Poopsie expected or wanted it to. Bad Medicine. Weak Medicine. Silly boy, Poopsie.

What kind of threats will Poopsie try to launch just so he can feel 'powerful' again? Will he continue to abuse his stranglehold over the corrupt FBI? Or is the FBI going to protect itself this time by getting rid of Poopsie for good? I hear there are a few agents in there, tired of his shit. Really tired of it.

The Truth has been coming out for a long time. It comes out in small ways and in big. It comes out about a murder in Indian Country, and it comes out about deaths that have never been investigated. It comes from the people who cannot live and do not want to die, protecting the lies, lies and more lies. People talk. They have to. They send documents and they do all they can to purge themselves of the secrets they have been forced, for generations, to conceal.

The Truth Will Set You Free

This is the Age of the Messenger. I am not the only one. I am not the biggest one. I am clearly only one of many. Julien Assange, the "messenger" for Wikileaks has had his life threatened by governments all over the globe. As if killing the messenger would stop the Truth or 'change' anything. People don't realize that it is bigger than the Messenger. It is the Truth emerging and it will find a way, a thousand ways, a million ways.

Those who oppress us, want us to self-impose ignorance and denial. We are allowed to be victims, but we are not allowed to come together, have the same information, and know the truth. But something, a force bigger than governments, or petty bullies, is moving now.

It is bigger than the cold comfort people get from sympathies of being a victim, and it is not going to stay down. If you try to shove it down, it will come back and bite you. This is the Time we were told would come: When the Truth would start to come out. Stay Tuned. You ain't seen nuthin' yet!

Keep praying for the Truth to Come Out. It's working. Everywhere. High and low. We all have a part in what we learn, but learn we must, unless we wish to keep repeating these horrible tragedies, in ever greater, harder frequencies.

You know where to find me!

~Cat

PS: Drug Test Alex. He has never been able to pass one yet. Tell him "Poopsie" gave you the idea. In that ironic way, the "Truth" about Alex Yankton's drug use will come out. I think that would be just purrrr-fect.

And, thanks guys, it means a lot to me. ;-)

December 15, 2010
Head Start Head Butt

From the Rez:

I have some interesting news for you that happened at the Blue Bldg at the Headstart offices:

Cheppa Cloud who is supposed to be a teacher working with little children but who has no qualifications to do so of course..was going to be suspended after christmas. Several Reasons:

- She leaves her job, classroom and doesn't come back,
- She lies to her supervisor and tries to cover her absences and--
- Doesn't show up and no call to explain what she is doing??

Basically she acts entitled because her Mother is Cheryl "Porky" Cloud who is the Chairwoman's sister. Anyway, Cheppa is given the letter saying she is going to be suspended over the Christmas holiday, but she is going to be paid on top of it.

But her Mother goes to the Headstart office and physically attacks -hits the Director, a woman by the name of Becky Larson, and also hits the Nurse for the program!

Charges are filed on her but so far I don't know if she was arrested or not, because her sister is the Chairwoman of the tribe she made us all look like idiots who attack people who are trying to help our programs and work with our people?? think you can do something with this on your blog?? let me know and I will tell you more...

Then came more...

The Director of the Headstart called 911 and the Indian Police came and took Cheryl Porky Cloud away, but no one knows if they put her in jail.

Cheryl's daughter never put in 40 hours for the whole time since she has been working. The Headstart has a staff student ratio that they need to provide a safe environment for the little kids. When Cheppa Cloud walks away from her job she puts the children in danger and doesnt seem to care if she does.

On top of this it is making it even harder for us to find qualified people to fill the positions for which there are no tribal members qualified.

In 2012 all the teaching positions will need to be filled by licensed teachers or they will pull the funding for the program not being in compliance.

I doubt that Myra or the rest of the council, with the exception of Justin, can understand what that means. The others will say they have alot of time left but they don't, and don't realize it.

Well anyway that is what happened so far it will be interesting to see what happens tomorrow with this whole incident that makes all the Spirit Lake people look like idiots in the surrounding communities, which I am sure have heard about all this by now.

A 60 year old woman fighting a program Director over her daughter who is 40 years old and too irresponsible for the job she is in? It is beyond and stretch of the imagination that anything like that could happen anywhere else except here.

Do tell me more about this! Considering that the Future of the rez is in the youngest of the children out there, these kinds of neglect, violence and abuses, are what is destroying the future.

We All Grieve Differently-- Some by Celebrating?

From the Rez:

Monday Nov 29, Sheyenne, ND less than one week after Chris Cavanaugh was killed and the day before his funeral, Dederick Gray Bear and Grant Cavanaugh show up to drink away the cousin's memory they were responsible for killing.

Monday is league pool night at the bar.

The Eddy County sheriff shoots pool on a team. D & G were getting loud. They were warned to be quiet. D goes off. The bartender goes to them to remove them. Dederick throws a drink at the bartender and then tries to throw a punch at him.

The sheriff comes over and literally throws him out. They were told to leave and not to return. About a half-hour later Dederick comes back in. Once again he was told to leave. He argued and was tossed out again. This time he assaulted the Sheriff and an off duty deputy who stopped by to watch pool. The bartender calls the on duty deputy. Dederick is arrested on disorderly conduct charges and Grant has outstanding warrants.

Both were given mandatory 24 hour detox holdings. I heard Dederick got out but Grant was still held. The detox would have prevented both of them from attending the funeral of their cousin they had killed.

Clearly, being responsible for the death of their cousin has taught neither of them anything.

So, how much "joy" and "fun" has alcohol or drugs brought into your life lately?

Shape Shifter?

Typically, once every 6 months or so, I am told that I am someone else. That I am either another woman, or, more recently, that I am a man. I posted my picture and am told that it is not me.

So, to clear it up, go talk to Poopsie, Chuckles, Mary Wide-legs, or any of the Turdclan... they will tell you that picture is me. Bentley can tell you that the picture is me. For those who still refuse to believe it, I cannot help you. I learned, long ago, that I cannot fix Stupid.

Tell me more, tell me more, more, more more!

You know where to find me.

Hot Off The Wire

From the Rez:

.....DEET...DEET...DAH DEET DAH...DEET....JUST IN FROM THE REZ: I have more to tell you about yesterdays incident. Today so-called "Porky" punched (HAHAHA) right into work like NOTHING ever happened!

Myra brought one of her grandchildren into work for "defense" purposes (how pathetic) and as usual, put on a front of being mad and crabby very unapproachable, very unprofessional and was ready to attack if anyone brought UP the incident with Porky...

spoke with many, many people today and many are saying Myra should step down for not correcting this. Furthermore, the elders are saying had that been anyone else they would still be behind bars... This is an OUTRAGE!!!!

MYRA was supposed to be in Washington, DC (Obama's 2nd Tribal Summit and we did NOT attend!!! Why? (Especially when Myra said, "I am Delivering this to President Obama myself Next week (liar)" last week, publically at the High School. She said this to all the people.

When FEMA finished the tribes "Recovery Plan" for the flood which I may add (The Plan with NO money $) How pitful she is....how pathetic she is....(Boy she really is trying to convince the "Oyate" she really did good....(The people are ashamed of her.....But her followers Like LiL Joe Alberts (Child Molester) go around an say, "what a great job she did/and how great thou art....what a crock of shit....Hey People of Spirit Lake....Hey.....Yeah...YOU....who claim to be strong.....Warriors.....Hey.....come close and LOOK.....YOUR Tribal ChairPearson!!!! SUPPORTS Rapers and Murderers and CHILD MOLESTERS and NOW is Supporting.....ASSAULT And BATTERY.....

"Hoe Wha"....POCK, POCK, POCK .....ONE QUESTION: COME

*CLOSER,(YOU WHO BITCH Behind closed doors.....
YEAH YOU CHICKEN(S).....MYRA is laughing at you....(she is saying
"let them come and try to do something" Just like when her son TERRY MORGAN had a baby with a under-aged girl...WHERE was Justice then?*

*....and now her sister is involved in this.....right in the Blue
Building...PORKY.. (GETS TO Go To Work the Next day) POCK, POCK, POCK, POOOOOCK, POCK, POOOOOK....YEAH KEEP ON PEOPLE.....CHICKENS...I SEE.... NOT WARRIORS...ANYWAYS, MYRA chooses to sit in the tribal office this week doing nothing but playing SICK (old war tactic) creating a smoke bomb, hoping people are going to feel sorry for her (Nabbs the people are on to her). She just sits in her office playing computer games....the people ask for you to put a questionnaire on the blog...simply survey....Should Myra step-down for doing Nothing about the Assault and Battery (Federal Charge) that happened in the Head Start Program?....Yes or No....Please Post ASAP...note: then if the people see everybody voting yes. They will build COURAGE through your website and start a removal petition on her immediatly "the Stupid idiot"!!! OTHERWISE INSTEAD OF "TIS THE SEASON TO BE JOLLY" it will be TIS the SEASON for "POOOOCK, POCK, POCK...HEY
OYATE YOU...DECIDE*

Ok, email your votes to me: Should Myra step down? Yes or No?

I don't have the bandwidth to put a poll on the site that works by votes.
Sorry. It's pretty basic.

Miss & Miscellaneous

I heard from one reader that they were thrilled that Becky Larson got slapped around. They say that Becky is so far up Wanda's butt that she is holding a job she is not qualified to hold and is the reason why so many teachers are leaving the program.

So, it appears to be a 'cluster' all the way around. Nothing good will come from any of this unless fundamental changes are made.

Also, around 9:00 tonight Ambulance, police cars flying around the rez. All for the same place? Or different places? What the heck happened out there?

And 20" of snow to dig out? What a mess. Yes, the floods are next.

So much to deal with... so little time... before Christmas.

You know where to find me.

*December 18, 2010
Think Of The Children

Here's the Update: So, the twerp who was writing all the bs was using someone else's name. It happens. A lot of cowards out there. I heard from the real Martina. She wants her name off of here. How do I know it's the real one? She can spell. And since the blog is already out there, all I can do is post this update and cross through the name. Trust me, anyone married to Terry has enough problems. I'm sure his name will come up again. Hopefully, he won't drag her back in with him.

More on the event at the Head Start Program. The Government is actually cracking down and making it so you cannot just call your program "Head Start" and get funding. You actually have to comply with fundamental rules. Like showing up, child-to-teacher ratios, etc.

Having your 60-yr. Old mother show up and punch out your supervisor because you don't want to follow the rules, doesn't really meet the criteria. You have to actually follow the rules.

I know there are some who want to bash those who are trying, for the sake of the Children, to make it work. The fundamental problems start at the Tribal Chairwoman's desk, and go outward from there.

The Tribal Chairwoman plays favorites. The Personnel Director, Wanda White-Trottier, plays favorites, and in the mix, you find people trying to get the job done and putting up with some really abusive situations. No one has any faith in the leadership of the tribe, nor in the hiring of people who head the programs. Some may be better than others, some may even be good, but no one can count on it because there is no standard out there.

But for the sake of your children, your future, please discuss these issues in your community and get them resolved. Get your 'differences' aired out in a civil way, and put aside the petty BS and remember: This is where the children become aware of the system that will either guide & protect them or abuse & neglect them.

I'll start it by posting the differing views in here... but you know you need to get them resolved there. Everyone needs to feel confident that the Children are getting the best you can offer them from your community.

From the Rez:

Becky Larson is really doing the best job she can with what she has to *work with. ... she does have a four-year degree in nursing and years of experience with Head Start so I wouldn't say she isn't qualified. .... If you want to find out the real mess of head start you have to go to St Michael and check out those employees! They put fear into the management and run it the way they want! If Becky has a fault its she is afraid to stand up and be a manager!... Now this weekend will be interesting, GA's went out today! Mo money means mo booze and pills!

Thanks for listening*

Right On Schedule

And... Speaking of GA payments --- right on schedule I hear from a one of Terry Morgan's Bimbos who thinks she was the one being discussed when we talked about him sleeping with underage girls out there. She claims he didn't get her pregnant until she was 18. Missing the point entirely that he was sleeping with her before that. Of course, she denies this. And, wasn't he was married at the time?... But the really funny part is that she was not the only underage girl... and she thinks she's the only one.

From Martina Longie:

haha very funny "Just like when her son TERRY MORGAN had a baby with a under-aged girl...WHERE was Justice then?". but just so u know i was 18 before i got pregnant. so whoever is writing to u saying that dont know jack about nuttin. but i will let terry know not to be having babies with under aged people lmao. o and tell patti and leon i said hi and have a very merry christmas. and if you guys want to gossip about me atleast get the facts right damn.

Who are Patti and Leon? Honestly, it would help if I knew who these people really were. There was a Patty who was upset because people thought she was me, but nothing I could do about that. Posted my pictures, but "Can't Fix Stupid" so some people still think she's me... I'm guessing ...unless there is another one, with an "i" instead of a "y". And this is the first time I have heard of a "Leon" so clues, people, clues!

She also denies that Terry stabbed anyone. Her 'proof' is that he is not in jail. Being the Chairwoman's son (NLO again), he won't be in jail unless an outside authority nabs him. Look how long Zit Puppet stayed out of jail, despite his multiple arrests off rez, and his multiple crashes on the rez while drunk driving. Daily.

Again, with the drugs/alcohol or both kicking in, spelling going to hell...

...no i was actually 17 when we got together, but didnt have sex til my 18th bday then he really gave it to me. lmao. well geez u think if he stabbed someone he would be in jail right. another one of ur made up stories. o and i dont really care if people believe anything i have nuttin to prove to them. under tribal law o wait ur not from here so u dont know that. look it up on the age limit there missy and then we could talk. I know im very lucky thanks he is a wonderful man. giggles huh same thing i get every time i look at ur page which isnt very offen just funny to see all the lies i see on there very funny. cripes u think they could of atleast told u we have two kids together and or married cripes those damn people that try and gossip about me. but yup tell Patti and Leon Merry Christmas for me im sure they are writing to u now

Yup, that is how dumb she is. When people write like this and think it makes them look smart or credible, I just shake my head slowly.

Yup, the GA payments, the pills and the booze all hit right on schedule.

This is why a GOOD HEAD START PROGRAM is needed. The Tribe needs to do all they can to make sure that the program is run properly and supported. People like this Martina woman have children that are going to need a safe and sane place so they can at least get contrast with what they find at home.

They don't need people who want to be paid but don't want to show up. They really don't need violence, having a 60-yr Old drunk come in and punch the Director & the Nurse.

Now, again I say, the person writing to me claimed to be Martina Longie. People do write in under someone else's name when they want to say something really stupid... so you need to find out first if that was really her or not. Ask her. Or, if she is that dumb and it sounds like her... wait until the pills and/or alcohol wears off and see if she's still proud of herself.

Still Don't Know

What all the police cars were doing at Rome E. Cavanaugh's place Thursday night. What happened? Is he ok? That was a lot of police cars... Then again, it might have just been a Tribal Police Chinese Fire Drill.

You know where to find me.

Steak Night Will Never Be the Same

I don't know if Monday is still Steak Night at the Casino, but it will never be the same. Used to see Poopsie and his wife, the Fly Catcher, waddle in there, load up their plates, chew with their mouths open, grease dripping down their chins... and then they would waddle out.

Welp, I heard a piece of news on the 17th, and I waited until I could get it confirmed: Poopsie has been fired. Failed a drug test. Typically, he used to be allowed to 'bring a sample from home'. This time, they made him take a real drug test. Oopsie Poopsie! All that Oxycontin? Vicoden? Showed up.

They fired him and he is not allowed on the premises. I am told that Paul Matheny made him take the test. He and Poopsie have not been seeing eye-to-eye for awhile. Poopsie doesn't think he has to keep his word on anything.

We'll see how long Paul lasts. We'll see how long he lives. Poopsie murdered Eddie Peltier because he was upset over getting a traffic ticket. Can you imagine what he has planned for Paul for this?

Strange Goings On At The Casino

There was a weird, 'pasted together' letter that was going around, supposedly written by Paul Matheny, telling the Tribal Council not to demand to know how much the Casino Profits were as this would then get into the hands of the Federal Government and they would not be able to get as much welfare from the Feds if they knew how much money was coming in.

The letter looked bizarre. Pasted together, photocopied... just strange. I received several copies of this letter, and they all looked the same. Came from several sources. All of the writers were asking me what did this mean?

It means that the Casino is bringing in money that should be going to the Tribe and instead, it is going into the hands of the Turdclan and their pals. They don't want the people to know how much is being stolen from them. Putting a letter together like this, obviously cut and pasted to make Paul Matheny's signature on it 'fit', tells me that whomever was doing this wanted Matheny to take the blame for it.

I wonder if that was what set off the whole Drug Test for Real thing?

Been a Baaad week for Poopsie. He gets thrown off a construction site after trying to get Terry Dunn fired for nothing, and now he's thrown out of the casino.

I hope the Feds get in there and confiscate all his porn, his kiddie porn, his hard drive, and find where he has put illegal bugs and cameras.

By the way, Wacky Jackie needs a drug test. That cat piss smell on her? Meth.

Yeah, told you that the bought altar would bite your white Medicine Man, and it would bite you too.

I bet Turdmother has no idea what to do about this now. Poopsie moping around, muttering prayers and curses, Pisser spitting in her face, Alex getting in a wreck... wait, that one hasn't happened yet. Never mind.

Anyone seen that stranger in the casino lately? The one with the list of names? The one that vanishes like smoke the minute he steps out the door. The one that comes in from the water side. The one that smells like the bottom of the lake... where so many secrets are waiting... Anyone seen him?

Head Start

Yes, the battle rages on. The back and forth. Instead of posting all of it here, I will, in the next couple of weeks, make it's own page for it. I think it is important for people to see how even something as important as a Head Start Program for the little ones, is politicized, dysfunctional and how even there, violence is what the kids see.

This is where the kids learn that violence is how you get your way. This is where they learn that violence, irresponsibility and 'family connections' are how you get your way in this world.

It needs to change. If you can't have qualified people in there doing the job for those little kids, you can't fix anything anywhere. This is where the twigs are either taught how to grow tall and straight, or get twisted into confused personalities where nothing makes sense. This is where it begins. Give the kids a chance.

Talk about this and show up for meetings and make it something that is important to you. Hey, skip a few Bingo nights if you have to, but get your priorities straight.

Get rid of Wanda. She has no business being in that job that oversees who gets all the jobs. She's a pill head. If she ever hired anyone that was qualified, no one would know it or believe it because typically, she only hires her friends. They are pill heads too.

If you want the rez to get better, be better, then do better by the kids. They are the Future.

Like I said, I will make it's own page and post the comments there. I'll let you know when it is up. You will see how petty and small some people are when it comes to just about anything out there. You will see how the feuds cloud common sense and obscure the real issues.

To me, the biggest failure in this is the violence. Porky should be in jail. Disgraceful behavior.

More Violence On Children

Romee Cavanaugh's event the other night, the one with all the police cars and the ambulance? He did what any real man would do when he got mad at his girlfriend. He went over to her house and beat up the kids. Little kids. They ran to a neighbor's and called for help. One little one is in the hospital with stitches and a concussion. Yeah, real man.

I am told that she wasn't home. They were left alone. Little kids. Does anyone know if she was home? Where was she? Was she there? We need to know. It matters.

And here I thought he had gotten robbed.

I told those kids were his kids. This is why kids need help out there. This is why kids need a safe place. This is why kids need to know that the system will protect them, not abuse them. Otherwise, they have nowhere to run. Nowhere to find help. They will grow up to act out what they learned at home. Just like Romee does. Just like his parents did. It's a legacy cycle of abuse that needs to be understood and broken. Nothing changes, except to get worse, if we don't all work to protect the children before they grow up and become the abusers.

More Child Exploitation

Congrats to Corey Ploium! He's a father! All those rumors about him messing with underage girls in his class... true.

From the rez:

You forgot to talk about Oberon's favorite son and school teacher, Corey Ploium. He became a father not too long ago. The mother, Rainy Hill just turned 18. My bet is that she was 17 when she became pregnant. Seniors at 4Ws said that they had something going on when they were all in 8th grade and Ploium was their teacher. Guess that when you are a 40 year teacher have kids with students, you would have to be classified as a perverted loser.

So, between the cops & the teachers out there, your kids don't stand a chance. Yeah, yeah, I know, I know-- True Love, This is Different... honey girls, watch how they do it again and again... with other girls as young as you were, or younger. It's not something they get over. It's what they do.

Fake

I found it rather amusing that the Fake Martina kept writing to me after the real one asked that I not mention her name. Yeah, we get all kinds here. Especially after the GA arrives. I swear, a TV show about the Rez would be part comedy, part drama, part Jackass, and part suspense. I save my emails. We can draw the cast from there.

For Real

Poopsie failed his drug test and got fired. It was really hard not to just jump right on that one. Really hard to wait for confirmation. But I did. Didn't want to get your hopes up... but now, it has been confirmed and it is for real.

Having lost his magic, his power, his Medicine Spider, his base of power and his Mind-- how long before the rest of it comes out? The murder investigation started back up?

Will he murder Pisster before she can talk? If he does, her boys will talk.

Murder Eileen Eagleman before she can tell the truth? Hmmmm... that would be tricky. She might want to talk now and make it so they can't kill her.

Alex, you still got a job at the Construction Site? Or did you fail your drug test too?

You know who is really nervous in all this? Spencer Helleckson. Watching Poopsie lose his 'power' and his mind, and knowing what he is capable of, Spencer is not feeling too secure. I can just see him sitting across the table from an informal panel... a simple question: "Anything you want to tell us now?"

Pete Belgarde will fold like a cheap lawn chair, so he won't be backing up any old stories about what he said he saw. He might tell what he really knew then and knows now.

I can see the players all being rounded up: Jeannie Charbonneau, Weenie Boy, QBall, Pisster, Helleckson, Demus McDonald, Mary, Kelly Brunnelle, all of them... gathered up one-by-one... wondering who will be the first to break. Wondering who already told...

I bet they can smell their own fear. I bet it keeps them up at night. I bet they have dark circles under their eyes. I bet they wonder what you see when you look at them. They wonder if it shows.

It does. It shows.

Keep praying for the Truth to Come Out. When it comes out, it comes out Big. It comes out Everywhere. It cannot be stopped. It is already happening.

Can an investigation into Ronin and the millions of dollars in Tribal Funds that went there, be far behind?

You know where to find me.

Cycle of Violence

So, looks like Romie or "Rome E" Cavanaugh beat up his girlfriend before he went back home and beat up his kids. He beat her up pretty bad. She didn't call the cops. At least at this age and stage, the kids still have enough instinct to save themselves; getting away, running for help, in the dead of night, freezing cold.

Cavanaugh's have a reputation for violence. Casual violence. Violence as a sport. Domestic Violence. That is one of the reasons they were on the laundry list that Poopsie made up to create an alternate scenario of how Eddie was murdered. Cavanaugh's so well known for their history of violence and their penchant for mindlessly attacking men, women, boys and girls, that it would be easy to name them as suspects. I mean, who wouldn't believe it?

Cavanaugh's are violent. But they had nothing to do with Eddie's murder.

The cycle of violence runs through a lot of families out there. They didn't just 'get that way,' and they were not 'born that way'. It's a multi-generational legacy and there are many issues in motion that create the violence on the rez. It goes back over 100 years, to the abuses by the Indian Agents, Federal Government, State Governments, and the Churches. Throw into that mix, 10 generations of Residential School horrors and trauma and you have a multi-generational PTSD that gets worse with each generation.

The corruption on the rez does nothing but make it worse. Women get beat up, little children get beat up... no one has anywhere to run. Those who survive carry on the legacy of abuses to the next generation. Elders get beat up, robbed. It is toxic.

What do so many children want for Christmas? How about, instead of a bicycle, work to bring an end to the cycles of violence?

Ramifications

Poopsie failing his drug test has more ramifications. He should be thrown off the Law and Order Committee he runs. He should have his Infragard Security Clearance rescinded. And everyone he brought into that shady shadow police department should be thrown out with him. He can't be trusted and they can't be trusted. Their allegiance is to protecting the Turd Clan, not in protecting the Community.

He should also lose his status and the protections of being an FBI Confidential

Informant. Having a druggie like him design the busts that go after all the smaller players, costing taxpayer dollars, ending up with a pan full of bony small fry, is a sick joke.

All of these things that have formed the walls that have protected him and his siblings and his family for all these years, should start crumbling and leave him and them, out there, visible to and subject of, multiple investigations... for murder, theft, rape, incest rape, corruption, embezzlement, kidnapping... all those things and more, should be on him.

The walls are crumbling down. The Truth is coming out. It's coming out of the grave as I write this, and it is walking towards the Turdclan. It stinks. It's going to point the finger right at them. Them, and everyone of their friends who helped them cover up the murder.

Wow, Poopsie, did you get that jar out of your office before you got thrown out of the casino? The one with Gilbert Fassett's genitals in it? If that gets found, that's another murder they'll have you for.

Q-Ball has offered to kill you to spare you the trouble of ratting them out. He offered his nephew, Willy, and your brother Scott, "Gok"... he'll take you out too. He's got nothing to lose and it is the only way he can be 'sure' you will not say anything.

So, Poopsie, life just got a leeedle more stressful, didn't it?

This is going to be the BESTEST CHRISTMAS EVER!

You know where to find me.

PS, There will be no blogs until Jan 5, 2011. Stay safe, stay warm, and learn to talk to one another. I will still be getting and responding to emails. But my access to computer and Internet may not be all that reliable
